Reminders

Please continue reading at home! The students should be trying to read for 20-30 mins a night!

A Peek at Our Week

- Math: we are working really hard on learning new ways to work through addition. Our most recent is Partial sums addition.
- Reading: we are continuing to learning about different genres. We have mainly been focusing on informational text.
- Social: the kids learned a small intro to researching. For this we researched the seven continents, and learned more about them.
- Religion: we are learning the importance of the of the Eucharist and why we celebrate it.

A Note From your Teacher

I hope you all have a wonderful Thanksgiving break! Our Advent season is upon us. Enjoy this season and all the magic it brings as it is a joyous time of year! Just a friendly reminder, cold weather is here please make sure your kiddos have everything they need for outside each and every day!

Wishing you Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year,
Mrs. Steffel
