Reminders

We are starting our new AR goals. Please have your children really strive to be reading everyday. That way these goals aren't left til the end of the semester.

A Note From your Teacher

We are back in the swing of things! The class is their happy go lucky self. Keep working hard and striving in all that you do! Keep it up.

A Peek at Our week

- Reading we have been focusing on historical fiction. The students have really enjoyed these stories and this unit.
- In math we are working hard on fractions. Understanding how to write them, read them, and figure them out.
- Religion we have been talking about Sacrifices and the biggest Sacrifice Jesus made for us.
- Science we are continuing to learn about matter. Social we are moving on to talk about people's rights and responsibilities.
