Reminders

The hardest thing this year has been reading and following directions. Please remind your kiddos to read the directions on all assignments.

A Note From your Teacher

This has been a wonderful but different year in itself. We have all worked hard to do our part and keep us in School. I want to thank you all for everything that you have done. I have enjoyed having this class again. It has been fun to see how far they have come. Keep it up! Enjoy your summer.

A Peek at Our week

Math- We just finished up on fractions. we are now working on recognizing missing factors, and shapes and money. Then we will be moving into our last unit!

Reading- We are on our final unit for reading. It is on informational texts. We have really been working hard on all of our literature/ reading skills.

Religion- We are learning about forgiveness. We will be discussing the Beatitudes.

Science/social- In Science we are learning about cells and the kingdoms things are categorized in. Social we are continuing on with Civilizations
